FORM OF BEQUEST.

I give and bequeath to "THE WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION OF PHILADELPHIA," a corporation under the laws of the State of Pennsylvania, the sum of _____ dollars, to be applied to the uses and purposes of said Association.

SECOND ANNUAL REPORT.

WE herein present to the public our Second Annual Report of the Women's Christian Association of Philadelphia, which will embrace a brief survey of what has been accomplished during the year, and a statement of the present condition and future prospects of the Association. The Board of Managers feel constrained to express in the opening paragraph, their grateful recognition of the Divine favor which has directed their counsels and crowned their labors with abundant success.

Our Association, although in its infancy, is composed of an active membership, drawn from the various evangelical denominations, embracing many representatives from nearly every church in the city. Going forth in obedience to our Divine Master's injunction to "Do good unto all men," we have found it joyful to work together in a cause which recognizes the relationship of sisterhood and brotherhood as co-extensive with humanity.

The second article of our Constitution states that "the object of this Association shall be the temporal, moral and religious welfare of women, especially young women, who are dependent on their own exertions for support."

As set forth in our First Annual Report, the Visiting Committee discovered very early that to furnish a comfortable Christian home to a limited number, and obtain employment for all who might be in need of it, would fall far short of meeting a very apparent and pressing want of an exceedingly numerous class of young women, whom, though not destitute of homes or out of employment, they found suffering in health from the lack of a suitable midday meal. To meet and provide for this has been the distinguishing feature of our labors during the year, and it is with feelings of humble gratitude to our Heavenly Father, that we review our toils and anxieties, for "He has upheld us by the right hand of His power, and led us by a way which we knew not."

The routine work of the Association is divided into eleven departments. Each department is intrusted to a special committee. The chairman of these several committees, together with the officers of the Association, constitute the twelfth which is the Executive Committee. This meets every Saturday, and receives reports from each of the others.

The Executive Committee reports every month to the Board of Managers, and the Board reports quarterly to the Association. Thus organized the work is thoroughly supervised, and the whole machinery is kept in motion.

We regret to have to announce the removal from our city of our esteemed and efficient president, Mrs. J. Spence Kennard. The Board cannot speak too highly of her gifts and graces. As a Christian woman, she was a pattern to us all; as an officer, she was wise and judicious. We regard her as an instrument chosen of the Lord, for the inauguration of our work. We shall ever cherish her memory and endeavor to emulate her zeal.

It is with unfeigned sorrow that we have to record the death of our honored legal adviser, Charles E. Lex, Esq. He was a man known far and wide for his Christian virtues; his praise was in the mouth of every one. Had we not known that our work was the Lord's, and that it would go on even if the workmen were removed, we should have felt that our loss was irreparable, but we rejoice that he was spared to see our Boarding House founded, and we shall ever remember with gratitude, his counsels and sympathy while we were struggling for its establishment.

The house, 1605 Filbert street, which accommodates forty, has generally had its full complement of boarders throughout the year. That which was an experiment one year ago is now an assured success, one of the permanent institutions of our city. The inmates are happy, and we believe appreciate our efforts to give them a Christian home. The conditions for admission are three, as follows : first, the applicant must be under twenty-five years of age ; second, she must be destitute of any guardian, protector or home in the city ; third, her weekly income must not exceed six dollars. The charges for board are from two dollars and fifty cents to three dollars per week, for three meals per day, and thirty-eight cents per dozen for washing. Family worship is maintained daily, attendance at which is desired. It will be seen that our charges are very moderate, yet we have been able to furnish good table fare, and owing to generous donations from members of the Association, table luxuries are not unfrequently supplied. The house is self-supporting.

There has been some sickness but no death. In no respect is it less a boarding house than in the care which is rendered "without money and without price" to its inmates during sickness. The Managers cannot forbear making mention in this connection of the peculiar kindness of W. W. Keen, M.D., who has given faithful, prompt, and gratuitous professional attendance to the members of our family whenever required.

While feeling a sincere appreciation for every evidence of sympathy given us by very many benevolent persons, we desire to make special mention of Professor G. I. Riché, who gave a reading for the benefit of our Association ; and also of Mr. J. Carbitt, who gave an entertainment at the house with his magic lantern.

We issued our First Annual Report when our organization was but nine months old. In that time our Boarding House had been established and paid for. The experience of these few months had served to open our eyes to the extent of the field of labor before us, and to impress our minds more fully with the importance of promptly entering upon it. Our Employment Committee said we must have a suitable room for our work. We needed also a hall for our meetings. The Young Men's Christian Association had treated us most fraternally in affording us the use of theirs, for which we were truly grateful ; but our work demanded that we should have one of our own.

The establishment of our Industrial School seemed to be a pressing necessity; to do this we must have a suitable room; and lastly we must have a dining room and temporary lodging rooms.

We entered upon the labors of our second year with a resolution to obtain if possible a property in which we could prosecute these several departments of our works.

In the month of December, 1871, the Building Committee reported having found a property at 139 North Seventh street, which in their judgment was more suitable as to location, capacity, and price than any other then in the market. Steps were at once taken for its purchase. The deed was delivered to us on the 19th day of January, 1872. The buildings on this property required considerable remodeling to fully adapt them to our purposes. Three days after we obtained possession, workmen began the labor of reconstruction under the direction of our architect, B. D. Price, and the daily inspection of the Building Committee; but it was not until about the middle of May that the work was fully accomplished.

On the third day of June every department, consisting of kitchen, dining rooms, lodging rooms, Employment Office, a room for the Industrial School and Association Hall, was neatly and comfortably furnished, and ready for occupancy. On the evening of that day the Board of Managers met together for the first time in their new building. Appropriate religious services were conducted by several of the clergy of different denominations, dedicating by prayer and praise our new house to the noble and Christ-like work of giving strength to the weary, aid to the feeble, instruction to the ignorant, and a refuge to the homeless.

By notices in various daily papers, the public were invited to visit and inspect our building. During two weeks, notwithstanding the intense heat, many came daily, and by their manifest approval of what we had done, as well as by the substantial aid rendered by many, greatly cheered and encouraged us.

On the seventeenth of June the house was opened for the specific work of each department. We deem it proper to give a summary of what has been done since then.

Our schedule of prices for edibles is: Tea and coffee, per cup, three cents; soup, including bread, five cents; roast meats, ten cents; vegetables, five cents; pie or pudding, five cents. As the season changes our bill of fare will be changed, but the foregoing gives the key to the prices. We estimate the actual cost to us. The average number who have dined at our Rooms has been over one hundred daily.

It may not be amiss for us to say that our patrons are not regarded in any sense as subjects of charity. They pay what the article costs, and we hope that no false pride will deter any who toil, from reaping the benefits we offer. Labor is respectable, but the exigencies of trade are such that the compensation is often inadequate. It is the realization of this that prompts us to supply to the consumer, a meal at a price that will be equivalent to an addition of from ten to fifteen cents per day to her salary. For instance, the record of one day was kept with this result: forty-three persons dined at a cost to each of five cents, and seventy-one at an aggregate of less than five dollars.

Many of the young women who come to our dining-rooms tell us of the benefits they experience from a warm meal. Some have spoken of permanently impaired health due in great measure to eating a cold, insufficient dinner for many years. From these testimonies we have abundant evidence of the great benefits of this part of our enterprise.

Our temporary lodging rooms are open to needy homeless ones at any hour of the day or night, charges are from ten to twenty-five cents per bed. The whole number furnished with lodgings to October 1st, was one hundred and sixty-six.

EMPLOYMENT DEPARTMENT.

One or two extracts from the report of this Committee will suffice to give an idea of what has been done. "On June 10th we received our first application for employment, and from that day we have been fully occupied. Hundreds have asked for employment or assistance. They have come from all directions; every country of Europe, Canada, and nearly every State in our Union.

"In our work we have ample scope for our sympathy, our judgment, and our ingenuity, as well as that crowning grace, patience. Some very worthy persons apply to us for whom it is almost impossible to find suitable employment; their needs and their capacities are as diversified as their personal appearance. To harmonize all these differences, and in the meantime to meet the earnest plea of those who say, 'I must have something to do;' 'I will try to do anything,' is no easy task.

"It would be interesting if we had time, to give a description of some of the cases that come under our observation—that hold on to our hands and creep into our hearts.

"More than nine hundred persons have come to us for help of one kind or another—at least eight hundred have asked for employment. Probably from four to five hundred have found it through our Office. It must not be understood that these statements and figures give an adequate idea of the work of this Committee. In connection with this positive labor, is any amount of advice, sympathy, visiting and letter writing, limited only by the time and ability of the Committee."

INDUSTRIAL DEPARTMENT.

In connection with our House on Seventh Street a committee has been organized for instructing young women, first in the much neglected art of plain sewing in all its branches, and afterward in practice on the machine.

Their aim is proficiency, and when attained, their pupils are to be furnished with a certificate sufficient to insure them a place where plain needle work of the highest class is sought after.

It is their intention also to keep a list of seamstresses, whose competency they can vouch for, whose address may be furnished to any lady making application for such service.

The labors of our Visiting Committee are somewhat of a missionary character. They seek out the needy, the stranger, the homeless, the friendless, and having found any one who can be benefitted by our Association, in any of its departments, they introduce such an one to its benefactions.

They stately visit the patients of Wills' Hospital, administering sympathy and Christian counsel. They also conduct a Bible Class at the Boarding House.

There now remains a debt upon our Seventh Street property of $10,500 which the Managers hope to be able to liquidate through the liberality of the Christian public. The language of our hearts is "Hitherto the Lord has led us," and our faith is strong that He will continue to direct our steps, if we acknowledge Him in all our ways. We ask the Christian women of Philadelphia to look at what has been accomplished in these two years, and then look at the field of labor before us. If you sympathize with our work and feel thankful for its accomplishment, come and join us with your means and your labor, and let us establish other homes and other dining-rooms in various sections of our large city.

Having briefly given our statement of what has been done, we rely for support in the future upon the same strong arm which has sustained and guided us until the present.

The cause is His—our faith abides that He will never leave or forsake us.
